| Format | One male fencer and one female fencer each form a fencing pair. Man against man and woman against woman fight each battle. Before each fight it will be drawn, whether the men or the women begins. First rounds are fought, followed by direct elimination. We fight with up to a number of 20 couples with repechage, from a number of 20 pairs we fight without repechage. The first of the couple will fence for 5 hits. Then the partner takes over the result and continues to fight up to 10 hits. There is no timekeeping. Additionally other age groups down to the youngest can also take part in this competition. Age groups may be mixed within the fencing pairs and within the combat. The host reserves the right to make changes to ensure a smooth procedure. | | | | | | | |
